SEPARATE CAR SEATS. As heretofore stated Mr. Caton, of Alexandria, has drafted a substitut : to take the place of the separat :- street car measure originally introduced by him and which found disfavor with the street railway companies. The substitute has been considered by the Honse committee on good roads, and it was manimously decided to report it favorably. The substitute, which stands a fair chance of passage, is as follows:

A Bill to Require all Companies or Corporations, Person, or Persons, Operating Electric Railroads or Railways, to Provide for the Separation ways, to Provide for the Separation of White and Colored Passengers,

Traveling Upon the Cars or Coaches Running Upon Their Respective Lines of Railroad or Railway.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That all companies or corporations, person or persons, running or operating cars or coaches by electricity on any railroad line or track within this State, and all railroad, traction, or power companies, person or persons, running or operating cars or coaches by electricity in tals ctate, whether upon lines of railroad or railway owned in part or in whole, or leased, or lines that may here-after be granted or constructed in this State, and all foreign corporations or-ganized under charters now granted, or that may hereafter be gratted by any other State, or person or persons who may now, or may hereafter be engaged in running or operating any electric railroad or railway in this State, either in part or in whole, either in their own name, or in the name of others, be, and are herety, required in all such cars or coaches to separate the white and colored passengers, and to set apart and designate in each car or coach a port on thereof, or certain seats therein, to be occupied by white passengers, and a portion thereof, or certain seats therein, to be occupied y colored passengers.

2. That the said companies or corporations, person or persons, so operating cars or coaches upon said lines of railroad or railway, shall make no differ-ence or discrimination in the quality, convenience, or accommodation be-tween white and colored passengers, in the portion, or seats of any such car or coach which may be set spart for either race.

3. That if any of the said companies or corporations, person or persons, so operating cars or coaches upon the said lines of railroad or railway shall fail, refuse, or neglect to comply with the provisions and requirements of sections and 2 of this act, they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon in-dictment and conviction thereof shall be fined act less than $50, nor more than $300, and all county courts in whose courties, and all corporation or nustings courts, in whose cities any such railroad or railway is operating, or may hereafter be operated, shall have to Mr. Brown as above.

4. That the conductor, manager, or other person in charge of any car or coach so operated upon any such line of railroad or railway shall assign and set apart a portion of such car or coach, or certain seats therein, to be occupied by the colored passengers, and a pobe occupied by the white passengers, and shall so long as there remain va-cant seats in any such car or coach, as-sign and designat; the seats which shall be occupied by white passengers, and likewise assign and designate the seats which shall be occupied by colcred pas-sengers, and shall seat the white and colored passengers separate from each other, and should any passenger fail or refuse to occupy the portion of any such car or coach, or the seat in any such car or coach to which he or she may be assigned by the conductor, manager, or other person in charge of the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be flued not less than $10 nor more than $25 for each offence.

That any conduct or, manager, or other person in charge of any such car or coach on any line of electric road or railway within this State who shall fail or refuse to carry out the provisions of section 4 of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $25 for each offence.

6. That the provisions of this act shall not apply to persons employed se norsee, nor to officers in charge of prisoners, nor to through traine, cars, or coaches that do no local business.

7. That the justices of the peace of any city or county through which any such line of railroad or railway shall be operated shall have jurisdiction of all offences committed against the provisions of the fourta and fifth sections of this act, and she accused shall have the this act, and she accused shall have the same right of trial by jury, and the same right of appeal in offsuces committed against the provisions of said sections, as is now provided by law in case of misdemeanor.

8. This act shall be in force from and after May 1, 1902.

JEAN VALJEAN IN REAL LIFE Hugo's story of the fugitive convict risen to honor and distinction in his new life, only to be exposed and cast back into the gall y: through the relectless vigilance of the police, is duplicated in a to revealed by the arrest of a leading citizen of Case, Ark. James Huddleston for more than ten years bas been known at Casa as J. A. Alexander. He was arrested on orders from Paris, Texas. Huddleston admitted his identity and quietly announced his readicese to accompany the marshal. The people of Casa refused to believe Huddleston could be guilty of any crime, and offered to aid him in any way. He told them their good offices were useless. On May 14 b. 1890, James Huddleston was convicted in the Federal court in Texas on a charge of passing counterfeit money. He learned of the verdict and first. As week later a st anger arrived in Case. He was a quiet, pleasant man. He enid little trany one of his life history. He sengaged in business and prospered. As the town grew Alexander became one of the leading citiz ns. He added to his wealth rapidly and for the last five years has been considered the wealthiet man in the crimmunity.
